

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World

is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them; and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always noted, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

HONDURAS' CAPITAL TAKEN BY ZELAYA

Latest Central American War Comes to an Abrupt End After Some of the Hardest Fighting Ever Done in the States—Nicaragua is the Victor.

Washington, March 26.—Senor Corea, the Nicaraguan minister, last night received a dispatch from President Zelaya of Nicaragua, announcing the capture and occupation of Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras.

The capture of Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras by the Nicaraguans, coupled with the recent defeat of the forces of Honduras and Salvador at Choluteca and the flight of President Bonilla of Honduras puts an end to the latest Central American war. It is now probable that Nicaragua will install another president at Tegucigalpa in lieu of President Bonilla, and then with.

The government of the United States sent gunboats to both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts, and may draw her troops to her own territory.

Honduras has been helped in this war by Salvador, with whom she had an offensive and defensive alliance, and she has had to contend with a rebellious outbreak of her own people. This was also the case in Nicaragua, the latest revolution, in which each country seemingly taking advantage of the difficulties to further their cause. Only three Central American states have become involved, Costa Rica and Guatemala remaining neutral.

The principal losses to Americans have occurred in the banana industry. The reports of the Honduras inter-oceanic railroad, which transports the greater part of Honduras' banana board, say that the shipments of bananas have already fallen off to about one-quarter its usual volume. As an example of the desperate straits of this industry, it is reported that little boys and girls have been sent into the fields to cut and gather the bananas while the women transport and load them on the railroad cars. The men have gone to the war.

The American gunboat Marietta is said to have done good work in the interests of American shipping at Trujillo, the first Honduran port captured by the Nicaraguans. Upon arrival here on March 19, the Marietta reported that the Nicaraguans made an attempt to molest small vessels at Trujillo, which were the property of Americans, but that they desisted on receiving a warning from Captain Pullam of the Marietta.

A column of Honduran soldiers under General Chomorro has slipped past the Nicaraguan lines and is marching into the interior of Nicaragua, raising a revolt against Zelaya. An official report reaches here that on March 11 this column captured Totomilpa, Nicaragua, after 13 hours' fighting, and wounded or killed 100 Nicaraguans, besides capturing considerable ammunition.

The battle of Los Portillos de Na masique, which the Nicaraguans claim ended in disaster to the allied Honduran and Salvadoran armies, was reported by officials at the capital of Honduras as probably the greatest battle in the history of Central America. On the second day of the battle these dispatches announced that 10,000 men were engaged, that the allies, after forcing Nicaraguan outposts, had trained 60 cannon upon the enemy's main entrenchments, which were on a hill, and that the mortality on both sides was heavy. Immediately after receipt of these dispatches telegraphic communication was interrupted and the only news of the final day of the battle has come from Nicaraguan sources, which claim that the allies were defeated, with 1000 killed and wounded.

Dispatches about the time of this battle said that Lee Christmas, the American, of Memphis, Tenn., (since reported captured by the Nicaraguans) was giving good account of his fighting ability. He withstood for three days a column of Nicaraguans which had skirted the main body of Honduran troops, and was marching upon the capital. General Christmas stopped the advance of this column. It was reported that this flank movement was made by only a small portion of the Nicaraguan troops and that its purpose was to divert attention from the operations of the main Nicaraguan army.

Milton in Boyhood and Youth.

A portrait of the ten-year-old Milton, by Cornelius Jansen, the Dutch artist, shows him to be a typical Saxon boy, with a sweet face, a fair complexion, blue eyes, and short-cropped auburn hair. Later his auburn hair has become a light brown worn in flowing locks parted at the forehead; his blue eyes have turned a dark gray, lighting up an oval countenance.

Know How to Stop Her.

Every person who rides on an automobile ought to know how to stop the machine. The turning off the electric current that creates the spark is sufficient, and that is generally done by turning a small handle. Not a few serious accidents would have been prevented had passengers in automobiles been in possession of this simple piece of knowledge.—Automobile Magazine.

Self-Seeking New York.

"I wonder," remarked a Wall street speculator, "if people really do take me for a pair of tongs?" "Why ask it?" "Because a day does not pass in which someone does not attempt to use me to pull his chestnuts out of the fire." "New York," he added after a moment's hesitation, "is the most generous place in the world when it comes to disposing of somebody else's money."

Jamaica Land of Romance.

Jamaica holds a notable place in English history. It has witnessed the warfare of English, French and Spaniards. Rodney, Nelson and Bonhom knew it well in their fighting days, and the latter lies buried in Jamaica earth. The buccanniers made it a port of call, and brought it into the kingdom of romance.

Simple Explanation.

Superstitious people formerly regarded with awe the turning red at long intervals of Lake Moret, in Switzerland. Botanists have now shown that the phenomenon is due to a plant which propagates every tenth year, and which, though very minute, grows so rapidly that the whole lake is soon turned crimson.

London's Smoke Travels Far.

A correspondent of the Times tells of seeing the country air filled with soot 64 miles away from the metropolis. He asked a shepherd, where it came from. The answer was: "We call it London dirt; in the winter when it comes up the snow here is covered with black."

One Way to Collect.

"What a lovely collection of odd cups," exclaimed a guest, peering into the china cabinet. "Did it take you long to get so many?" "Oh, no," said the hostess, "these are samples of the sets we have had in the last two years."

Strange Foods.

The Indians of this country were not afraid to eat grasshoppers, and the desert Hebrew tribes of Palestine thought locusts a dainty dish. In the West Indies the negroes eat freely of the big grub found in palm trees. The fat, white morsel, which they call "eru-gru," is not cooked or salted. The aborigines of Australia live almost entirely on a butterfly known as the bugong.

Talk about your good things—hot biscuits and maple syrup—at the Easter supper at Epworth church Thursday evening, 5 till 7.

Wooden Leg as Memento.

A woman applied to the Union guards in England recently for the wooden leg which was worn for years by her uncle, who died in the work house. Her request was granted and the woman took the leg home with her.

CONVICT HONORS MAN HE SHOT

Borrows $5 to Buy Wreath to Put on Coffin of Policeman.

Baltimore, Md.—William Howard, a convict who is serving a 20-year term in the Maryland penitentiary, borrowed $5 from Warden Weyler, with which he bought a wreath to be placed upon the coffin of ex-Policeman Doyle of Catonsville. It was for putting seven bullets into Doyle 17 years ago that Howard is now in the penitentiary.

Howard and a companion escaped from Westminster jail. Doyle came upon them in a hayrick, and they crawled underneath, the policeman after them. When the officer got to the other side Howard was ready for him and fired seven times. One shot was nearly fatal, but the policeman recovered. Howard was captured after a desperate fight in Harrisburg, brought back and convicted.

He said he wanted to pay tribute to the pluckiest man he ever had met.
